AN ARTISAN PIZZA RESTAURANT OFFERING A SLICE OF THE AMALFI COAST IN A BUSTLING SOHO METROPOLIS

Following on from the success of its award-winning original beachside location at The Pulse in Repulse Bay, Amalfitana Central is the new urban branch catering to demand for customers seeking the same beloved gourmet Italian fare in Central.

Boasting a Ceki brick oven flown in from Italy, the restaurant helmed by Mastro Pizzaiolo Michel Degli Agosti, will serve the same authentic brick oven Italian pizzas Amalfitana are renowned for, whilst also catering to the vibrant Soho nightlife scene.

THE PERFECT LOCATION FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT

Featuring an elevated bar snack menu, exceptional cocktails and regular sets from resident DJs, patrons will be all set to dance the night away.

Designed with a sun-soaked Campania courtyard in mind, Amalfitana Central is the ultimate destination to go as you can enjoy exceptional food in good company, throughout the day and night until the early hours in its indoor and alfresco space.
